The following are some guidelines to make your time on the three major social media platforms worthwhile.
Posting

Post 3-4 times per week at optimal posting days and times, including 1 on the weekend.

- Between 12pm & 3pm Mon, Wed, Thurs, Fri
- Between 12pm & 1pm Sat & Sun

Events

Invite audiences to special events with the Events feature. You will be able to track who has accepted your invitation and they’ll get notifications when changes are made to the event.

Live Broadcast

Look for real-time posting and live broadcast opportunities.

Plan a live broadcast on Facebook and send out teasers for brand advocates.

Encourage audiences to tune back in and participate in a Q&A session with leaders of your nonprofit.
Twitter

Search relevant hashtags for new content opportunities and existing conversations.

Follow sponsors and partners and engage with them when appropriate.

Follow back followers who align with your target audience.

Retweet relevant content when it mentions your charity.

Retweet user generated content and mentions.

Organize favorite relevant content, especially when it mentions your charity.

Tag relevant handles in tweets.

Utilize Twitter lists for ease of organization.

Utilize 1-2 hashtags per tweet.

Hashtags lead to content discovery

Keep tweets conversational and avoid sales talk

Leverage the use of images and GIFs

Keep tweets to 280 characters or less

Tweet 1-2 times a day at optimized posting times: 12-3pm Mon-Fri
Hashtags

Drive conversations with relevant or trending hashtags. 1-2 per post.

Live Stories

Leverage real-time posting opportunities with Instagram Stories.

Post live from events and other engagement opportunities.

Posting

Instagram is a platform to engage with your customer base in an informal and fun way. Keep your ‘brand voice’ consistent for every post.

Give your supporters a behind-the-scenes look into your nonprofit.

Commenting

Comment on content from personal accounts when supporters tag your nonprofit.

Interact with your support base via questions and comments.
There are countless social media tools available today! It may take some trial and error to determine which is best for your charity but these tools can significantly improve your social media management and performance.
